

Albert Musa, MD, MHCDS
SSM Health – Dean Medical Group

Dr. Musa has been a practicing general internist since 1987 and is currently practicing for SSM Health Dean Medical Group. He has held a number of part-time administrative positions, including Chief of Staff at St. Mary's Hospital-Madison; a member of the St. Mary's Hospital Foundation Board; and a voluntary teaching appointment at UW-Madison School of Medicine & Public Health. In addition, he has served as the Medical Director of the Primary Care East Region of Dean Health System (DHS), Inc. and served as Board Chair for the Dean Medical Group of the SSM WI Regional Health System Board.

Al received his undergraduate degree from Augustana College, Rock Island, Illinois; completed medical school at Rush Medical College, Chicago; and completed residencies in both family medicine and internal medicine at UW-Madison. He earned Six Sigma Black Belt certification through UW Executive Education and received a Master of Health Care Delivery Science (MHCDS) degree from Dartmouth College.

He is actively involved in the Wisconsin Research and Education Network (a practice-based research network) and i-Practise (Improving Primary Care through Industrial and Systems Engineering), both representing academic and community collaborative partnerships to improve health care delivery.

In his spare time, his focus is my family, including three grandchildren, and a fourth due in November/2021. He and his wife enjoy gardening and leisurely time with extended family, friends, and neighbors.
